

The Financial Resource Network invites you to a seminar critical to every Canadian Olim's Financial well-being:

Key financial issues for Canadian Olim.

- ✓ Understanding the Tax Treaty with Israel to minimize problems and find hidden potential opportunities, plus Tax updates from a leading Canadian Tax Strategist.
- ✓ Should money be left there, brought here or sent elsewhere?
- ✓ Characteristics of successful investments in 2019
- ✓ What is perhaps the safest investment strategy for wealth left abroad?

Featuring: Mark van Gelderen, FiRN Financial Advisor.

Howard Burstein, Canadian CA & Israel CPA, from Montreal, based in Petah Tikvah. Provides tax advice to Canadians and Israelis. Serves as an internal auditor and public auditor for many Israeli non-profit organizations. Works closely with leading Canadian and Israeli tax attorneys, and public auditors.

Jeff Eckstein, a Portfolio Manager, with 35 years' experience, ranked in the top 2% of investment advisors in Canada. Jeff was senior advisor to a Provincial Premier and his Minister of Finance on investment and pension policy, international trade and major financial projects (1986 to 1995). Today, the group he heads manages over $500,000,000 in assets for hundreds of high net worth families throughout Canada, the US, Europe and Israel.

Location: The Jerusalem AACI, Pierre Koenig 37, corner of Poalei Tzedek 2, 4th floor, opposite Hadar Mall, Talpiot.

Monday, May 27, at 19:00 (7:00 pm).

To register or for more information 02 - 580 7013, info@isrenet.com or http://www.frnisrael.com/Contact_English.html.

Cost: (donation to the AACI) AACI Members NIS 30, Non-members NIS 40

Mark, Howard and Jeff will be available before the class, by appointment only, for free, individual, no-obligation consultations on money management, investments, real estate, taxes, wills & trusts, etc.

The Financial Resource Network has been offering educational seminars and personal financial consulting at the AACI and similar organizations since 1992.